HISTORY

Intermediate and Senior Divisions (Grades 9-13)
Tuesdays, 11:00 - 11:30 a.m.

The story of Greece makes its appeal to pupils of every secondary school grade, but the broadcasts are designed, primarily, for the boys and girls of Grade 11 in their study of Greek History. Occurring as it does at the beginning of the school year, the series might be entitled, "Greeks You Are About to Meet". The choice of five men of significant prominence in Greek History will highlight successive stages of national life with which Grade 11 pupils are becoming increasingly familiar.

The five comprise an impressive group: Homer with his gods and heroes whose exploits every Greek schoolboy committed to memory; Cleisthenes who set a pattern for democracy in his native Athens; Miltiades who rescued Greece from the peril of Persian conquest; Alcibiades of the incomparable Periclean Age; and Socrates who still commands attention from men of all races.

Each programme will deal with one news event with special emphasis on the activities of the United Nations whenever possible. Teachers should have maps available for reference purposes during the broadcasts.
